The largest mega-diversity on the planet makes it home in Ecuador, the center of the world. With a privileged climate and the most breathtaking landscapes, the essence of Latin America merge to create a unique and unforgettable destination. The Andes in Ecuador has an area of approximately 600 km in length; it has elevations ranging from the 1500m in the subtropical valleys to elevations that exceed the 5000m at the summits of the highest volcano

From Guayaquil on the coast to Cuenca in the highlands Cuenca fuses culture, nature and tradition.

For an unforgettable active holiday in the Andes, bike along Ecuador's Avenue of the Volcanoes, ride the Devils Nose Railway, bike around Banos and Mt Cotopaxi. Then to its capital Quito. We bike through the land of the Otavaleños. The indigenous Otavaleños are famous for weaving textiles, usually made of wool which are sold at the famous Saturday market. Stay in beautiful country haciendas

The colourful diversity of Ecuador is simply "stunning"

Colombia - "South America's best kept secret", has undergone many changes in the last 10 years and is now the continent's 3rd biggest economy. A tropical country of incredible diversity and charm. Its ever-changing geography, a history loaded with mystery and adventure, its people and cultures, have fascinated the world for centuries. Friendly people, diverse landscapes, great music make this an ideal place to travel through.

Our journey takes us through the colonial white city of Popayan, the coffee region of Armenia to fashionable Medellin. Then to its capital Bogota, one of the world's leading cycling cities. Through the breathtaking Boyaca & Santander regions with lovely colonial towns, big canyons (Chichamocha 2nd largest in world) and great biking trails. Option to end the tour in lovely Cartagena de Indias, rated one of the top cities in the world to visit.

So no unpleasant surprises once you are in South America - you know before you leave exactly what this trip will cost and it is a bonus not having to dip into your money belt all the time to pay for 'EXTRAS'. We pride ourselves on being totally up front before you leave. Compare our inclusions for yourself, detailed on our Trip Dossier.

17	Thurs 8	Armenia -Medellin  Travel this morning by bus through to the city of eternal spring -Medellin  Accommodation: Hotel Poblado Boutique  www.hotelpobladoboutique.com The city of Medellin sits in a narrow valley originally inhabited by the Aburra Indians. It is the second largest city in Colombia and is said to be, "One of the most beautiful cities in South America." by experienced travelers who have discovered the magic of Colombia. Medellin's pleasant spring-like climate year round makes it known as 'La Ciudad de la Eterna Primavera' or "City of the Eternal Spring". Medellin is a safe, modern city filled with sophistication and charm from its Spanish heritage. It is known by its cultural encounters, the warmth of its people and the amazing views that are accompanied by clear blue skies and beautiful sunsets  Sample Medellin's famous nightlife in the Zona Rosa	Medellin (B)
18	Fri 9	Medellin  Travel to the Santa Fe region .  From the highlands, through cloud forests, we descend for more than 1700 vertical meters down into the Cauca River Gorge, over 35km in length, along exuberant landscapes and far reaching, breathtaking views to the valleys below. Passing through various ecosystems, colourful towns and farmlands, this full day of adventure offers varied riding terrain with many single track+trail options that can be taken for those who want to raise their pulse a little. The single track options snake through the main trail so the group is constantly meeting up throughout the tour.  The tour ends just outside of Santa Fe, a very historically significant and patrimonial city of Colombia, and if opted, the day will finish off in the center of town, where you can walk around and experience the quaint and colourful town.  Return to Medellin  Distance 40km with some elevation	(B,L)
19	Sat 10	Medellin-Bogota  Best way to see Medellin is by bike . The route will orient you to the rest of the city and our guide's local knowledge and insight are invaluable. The trip is about 20 km and takes about 4 hours. Although most of the tour is flat, there are two challenging climbs that are rewarded with fantastic views. Also, you may be required to lift your bike to occasionally climb stairs so we can use walking bridges to avoid dangerous highway crossings.  Distance 20km: elevation 500mt  Later this afternoon transfer to the airport for our flight to Bogota. Transfer to the hotel  Accommodation: Hotel Casa Deco  www.hotelcasadeco.com  Bogota set at an altitude of 2600m with the high ranges of the Cordillera Mountains lying to its east . It is sometimes referred to as the "Athens of the Americas" due to the Bogotanos' reputation for politeness and civility	(B)

20	Sun 11	Bogota Ride in the world-famous Ciclovía . when major avenues are closed to cars and fill with cyclists, skaters, joggers and walkers! We head to the colourful streets of La Candelaria, something not to be missed are the chocolaterias where you can sample the famous Bogotano hot chocolate . This afternoon you might like to head out of town and take the cable car up Mount Monserrate for magnificent views of the city or visit the splendid Gold Museum ( optional) 20km	Bogota (B)
21	Mon 12	Bogota -Villa de Leyva We depart Bogota travelling to the town of Cucunuba and commence a bike towards Raquira . Then to Villa de Leyva which is one of the most beautiful colonial villages in Colombia. Declared National Monument in 1945, the village has been preserved in its entirety with cobblestone roads, tiled roofs and whitewashed buildings. Accommodation: Hotel La Roca www.villadeleyva.net/hoteles/hospederia-la-roca 50-60 km with some elevation	Villa de Leyva (B,L)
22	Tues 13	Villa de Leyva We explore Villa de Leyva and surroundings. We will discover one of the most important paleontology regions in South America. This valley is an ancient ocean floor, home to many dinosaur fossils, as well as thousands of ammonites from the Cretaceous period. Evidence is found everywhere including decorations in floors and buildings. Then visit El Infiernito, a dry area with waterholes, and the Paleontological Museum which displays the most important assortment of fossils in South America. Here we find the most complete Kronosaurus fossil known to date. Our ride continues all the way to El Monasterio, a magnificent structure originally built in 1620 that was visited by Simon Bolivar himself. It has a great collection of religious and colonial art, as well as Muisca Indian displays . all adorned with fossils from the area. We return to Villa the Leyva to relax in its time suspended streets and coffee shops. 30 Km with some elevation	Villa de Leyva (B,L)
23	Wed 14	Villa de Leyva - Barichara Travel by van towards San Gil enjoying the beautiful landscapes along the Suarez River Canyon. At San Gil we will set up the bikes and ride to Barichara (35km approx). We will start climbing from San Gil for approximately 13km to the local airport and then ups and downs until we reach the beautiful town of Barichara, Barichara, a perfectly preserved Spanish town declared National Monument in 1978. Barichara is a charming colonial town with a magical ambience. Its cobblestone streets, red tiled roofs, squares, and laid back lifestyle give us the feeling of being transported to another era. Accommodation: Hotel Mision de Santa Barbara www.hostalmisionesantabarbara.com 35 Km with some elevation	(B,L)

24	Thurs 15	Barichara We start the day at 2000m above the town . Descend 25km down by bike to the base of the majestic Suarez Canyon passing through scenic agricultural landscapes. Then explore Barichara by bike and you will see why Barichara is deemed "the most beautiful pueblo in Colombia". After lunch some more rolling cross country biking descending another 25km . Return by bus to our hotel 50 Km	Barichara (B,L)
25	Fri 16	Barichara -Chicamocha Gorge - Bucamaranga Begin the day with a hike on a historical trail that was originally built by the Guane Indians. During the colonial era, this trail was rebuilt in stone by the Spanish to gain access to the Atlantic . Along the way we get great views to the gorge below and excellent birding, as a high concentration of species feed and inhabit this area . At the end of this 7km hike we reach Guane, another colonial town that seems lost in time. It has a dreamlike feel and great Spanish architecture. We visit the local anthropological museum to learn about the extinct Guane culture. In the afternoon, we bike into the Chicamocha River Gorge , also known as the Grand Canyon of Colombia.The ride starts at the edge of the canyon along a dirt road that zigzags down into the bottom of the gorge, descending 1400m The environment here is a unique dry forest filled with acacia, agave and cacti. Here we can also find remnants of a tropical forest where howler monkeys still survive. Other species found in this area are: iguanas, falcons and eagles. At the end of this 16 Km ride we will reach the town of Jordan at 430m. Located along the Royal Road from the Andes to the Caribbean, El Jordan used to be a prosperous merchant trade center. Today it has an eerie feeling, as it seems to be abandoned. We continue our journey to the city of Bucamaranga . Dinner included this evening at a local restaurant Accommodation: Hotel Ciudad Bonita www.hotelciudadbonita.com.co 40 Km	Bucamaranga (B,L,D)
